

Affirmation in lieu of oath

I hereby make the following declaration, being aware of the importance of a declaration of an oath and with reference to the criminal consequences of an incorrect or incomplete declaration

Personal information	Delivery address (if different)	Account details (only for return transfers)
Customer number: <input type="text"/>	Surname: <input type="text"/>	Bank: <input type="text"/>
Surname: <input type="text"/>	First name: <input type="text"/>	Owner: <input type="text"/>
First name: <input type="text"/>	Street/No.: <input type="text"/>	IBAN: <input type="text"/>
Street / No.: <input type="text"/>	Postcode/City: <input type="text"/>	BIC: <input type="text"/>
Postcode / City: <input type="text"/>
Email address: <input type="text"/>
Phone number: <input type="text"/>

Purchase details
Item description: <input type="text"/>
Invoice number: <input type="text"/>
Date of invoice: <input type="text"/>
Shipment number: <input type="text"/>
Description
<input type="checkbox"/> Item damaged
<input type="checkbox"/> Incomplete delivery
<input type="checkbox"/> Incorrect delivery
<input type="checkbox"/> No items received
The shipment is damaged / incomplete / incorrect because:
<input type="text"/>

I confirm the correctness of the information given above and declare on oath that I have not concealed anything and have told the truth, to the best of my knowledge.

I am aware of the criminal liability for a false affirmation in lieu of an oath and that making false statements may result in criminal proceedings for fraud.

I therefore ask for:	<input type="checkbox"/> exchange
	<input type="checkbox"/> return remittance
	<input type="checkbox"/> shipment of the goods

place/date

signature with first and last name